Good Reading....

Free Online Magazine

I'm a former EAA Chapter President, homebuilder and world record pilot, and I've just published a free online aviation & motorsport magazine - www.av8.in will take you to this magazine.

There's no registration needed, so please pass the word around if you like what you see.

The next issue, to be published at the end of June, will feature EAA's Ford Tri-Motor and will be a Ford related issue on the motorsport side too.

We would welcome submissions for publication in the magazine - in particular for our regular 'Adventure of Flight' and 'Nose art & Numbers' features. Please ask your members to submit photos of their aircraft for publication..

If you have any questions please contact me by email at goav8in@gmail.com
